

GRIPDRIP.com

GRIPDRIP is a service platform for artists and designers centered around griptape art for skateboards.

GRIPDRIP provides a hassle-free platform for sharing, buying, and selling griptape art for skateboards. Our design team of artists handle custom requests for art on griptape. Users can send in custom requests for designs they want or pick from popular designs in the shop. There is also a forum for users to post and share ideas, designs, and finished products for other users to pick from or share. Our aim is to create an engaging and passionate community of expression through art and to add ease to customization and personality in the skateboarding community.
